TERPS TODAY

News & Notes: Duke at Maryland

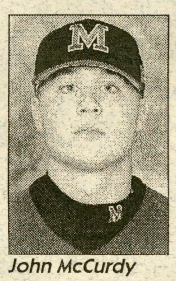
APRIL 26-28, 2002

TERPS AND BLUE DEVILS SQUARE OFF THIS WEEKEND AT SHIPLEY FIELD

- Winners of two straight, the Maryland Terrapin baseball team (26-17, 2-13 ACC) hosts Duke (19-23, 1-11 ACC) this weekend for an important ACC series at Shipley Field. The three-game set opens Friday night at 7 p.m. Saturday's game will also start at 7 p.m., and will follow the Red-White spring football game, held at Byrd Stadium at 4 p.m. Admission is free to Saturday's game with the Blue Devils. The series finale is set for Sunday at 1 p.m.
- Duke has lost four straight entering Friday's game after losing to East Carolina earlier in the week, 8-1. Last weekend in ACC play, the Blue Devils played the nation's No. 1 team tough in Durham, losing three to Clemson 5-3, 4-1, and 2-1.
- The last time the Blue Devils ventured to Shipley Field, the Terrapins won two-of-three to earn the series win. After dropping the series opener 8-5 on May 11, 2000, the Terps came back to win the final two games of the series, 6-3 and 11-3.

McCURDY VYING FOR ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

- Maryland junior shortstop John McCurdy (Crofton, Md.) has put together a season worthy of All-American consideration and is looking to become Maryland's first All-American since 1992 when Derek Hacopian earned the honor. The third-year player leads Maryland in every offensive category and also ranks among the ACC and NCAA's leaders in several categories.



John McCurdy

- As of April 14, McCurdy ranked fourth in Division I-A in batting with a .486 average. He is also among the national leaders in home runs per game (5th, 0.46) and RBIs per game (2nd, 1.80). McCurdy is the only player in the country to be ranked in the top five in home runs, RBIs and batting average.
- In the ACC, McCurdy ranks first in batting average, hits, home runs, RBIs, total bases and slugging percentage. He is on pace to become the first ACC Triple Crown winner since 1999 when Marshall McDougall led the ACC in batting (.419), home runs (28) and RBIs (106).
- For the season, McCurdy is batting .484 with 77 hits, 17 home runs, 66 RBIs, 151 total bases, 17 stolen bases and a .926 slugging percentage.

ON DECK: THE BLUE DEVILS OF DUKE

- Duke is in last place in the ACC with its 1-11 mark in conference play entering this weekend's series with the Terps. Duke's lone conference win came at NC State on April 14 when the Blue Devils won 4-2 over the Pack.
- The Blue Devils are batting .290 as a team and have been led by senior Kevin Kelly. Kelly leads the team with a .333 batting average and is tied for the team lead in home runs with six. Preseason first-team All-America first baseman Larry Broadway ranks second among Duke regulars with a .316 batting average to go along with six homers and 40 RBIs.
- The Blue Devil pitching staff has a team ERA of 4.99 with 279 strikeouts and just 115 walks in 375 innings pitched. The team's most consistent starter has been junior Jeff Alleva. In 12 games including 11 starts, Alleva is 5-5 with a 4.71 ERA.
- Duke is coached by Bill Hillier, who is in his third season at the helm. Hillier is 59-97 during his tenure in Durham as the Blue Devils' skipper. His son, Bill Hillier, Jr., is an assistant coach on the Blue Devil staff.
- Since 1924, the Terps lead the all-time series 70-60-1 over the Blue Devils. In its last 10 games vs. Duke at Shipley Field, Maryland is 5-5.

SWOPE LEADS THE CHARGE VS. DUKE

- Senior outfielder Matt Swope (New Carrollton, Md.) is Maryland's top career hitter vs. the Blue Devils. In 10 games vs. Duke, Swope leads all Maryland veterans with a .467 batting average including 10 runs and eight RBIs. Swope's .467 career mark vs. Duke is his best batting average vs. any ACC opponent.

THE BIG MAC ATTACK

- John McCurdy has joined an elite group of Maryland baseball players after his 17th home run of the season in the 10-7 win over Penn State. McCurdy became just the fourth player in Maryland history to hit at least 17 home runs in a single season. The long ball also moved McCurdy into fourth-place on the single-season home run chart. Derek Hacopian (1992) holds the single-season record with 23 homers.
- McCurdy is also tied for second in single-season history with 66 RBIs. He is also on the school's single-season top 10 list in hits with 77, which place him in sixth place. McCurdy's 151 total bases are also among the single-season leaders, placing him second on the list.
- McCurdy's 36 extra base hits in 2002 place him third on the single-season list at Maryland behind Hacopian, (41/1992) and Ken Noe (40/1991). He is also ranked second on the single-season list for slugging percentage at .926 and is in a tie for third-place with a .524 on-base percentage.
- McCurdy's .472 batting average is also among the school's best for one season. If the season ended today, McCurdy would rank fourth with his average, just ahead of Jim Pitts (.460/1964).

BECK CLOSING IN ON THE SINGLE-SEASON SAVES RECORD

- Senior Ken Beck (Laurel, Md.) has turned into one of the ACC's elite stoppers in his first season as the team's closer. A one-time backup catcher, Beck has been impressive on the mound in 2002 for the Terps.
- Beck leads the team with five saves, which places him in a tie for fourth place on the single-season saves list at Maryland.
- With just two more saves, Beck will equal the record of seven saves in one season, held by Brian Dunn (1994), Dale Lohr (1993) and Charles Devereux (1992).
- For the season, Beck is 1-0 with a 2.57 ERA in 21.0 innings pitched. Beck has allowed just six earned runs and has racked up 21 strikeouts while holding the opposition to a .220 batting average.

COMING UP BIG OUT OF THE PEN

- When Terry Rupp has gone to his bullpen this season, the Terrapin bullpen has been very effective. Both junior RHP Matt Basinger (Connellsville, Pa.) and junior RHP Derek Hoffman (Hagerstown, Md.) have been impressive, combining for an 8-1 record in 28 appearances. Joined with fellow junior RHP Brad Lyons (Massapequa, N.Y.), the trio has given Maryland three dependable arms out of the pen.
- Basinger is tied for the team lead with a 5-1 record and he ranks first on the team with 19 appearances including two starts. Basinger has lowered his ERA in 2002 to 4.13, almost four runs per game lower than his mark of 7.84 last season. In 28.1 innings pitched, he has allowed just 27 hits and is holding the opposition to a .262 batting average. In contrast, Basinger gave up 34 hits in 20.2 innings pitched in 2001 and opponents hit .364 off the Pennsylvania native.
- Hoffman is a perfect 3-0 with a 2.38 ERA in eight games this season. The lanky 6-8 righty has tossed 22.2 innings, and has given up just 16 hits while racking up 24 strikeouts vs. just eight walks. Hoffman is tied for the team lead with one complete game in 2002 and opponents are batting just .188 against him.
- Lyons has shown vast improvement from last season similar to Basinger. He has picked up his first two career victories this year for the Terrapins and is 2-2 overall with a 3.28 ERA. In 24.2 innings, Lyons has one save and has 16 strikeouts. In 2001, Lyons finished 0-3 with a 8.54 ERA including 45 hits allowed in 32.2 innings of work.
